TESTIMONIALS

I joined PTR in 2004 in conjunction with starting my sign business. I didn't have many connections in those days, business or personal, because I had just returned to the area after 20 years. I had no advertising budget to speak of, I didn't know much at all about business.

My first referral returned my membership fee two times over! Business seemed to snowball after that. To this day, my best customer is a moving and storage company referred to me by a group member. The PTR group is still directly or indirectly, after 11 years, responsible for a good portion of my business. I also have learned lots about business, improved my public speaking abilities, and met some really great people who have helped me loads - both personally and professionally!

I have been a member of PTR since the Spring of 2013. I originally joined the group to find some people to network with and to locate advocates for my business.

What I didn't expect were the close personal relationships I developed with the other members and the education I receive each Friday learning from the other members.

The benefits to me have been both measureable and immeasurable. I have received referrals that have added to the bottom line of my practice, but as importantly, I have been able to take ideas from the other members and applied them to my daily activities that no doubt have made me better at what I do.

There are other options out there, but I think none matches the solid, good faith interaction you will experience at PTR.

I have only been a member of PTR for a short time, but I have already made great connections and friendships. The meetings are informative and interesting. I am looking forward to continuing on with the group for years to come.

Ooh La La Travel

I have been a PTR member for over 6 years. I have found it to be a very effective and fun way to build my business. Since joining, my return on investment has been OVER 100 TIMES the cost of my annual dues. I also have found the friendly and informal atmosphere of PTR to be refreshing and very comfortable. We are like a group of close friends that enjoy helping build each others business. I have benefited greatly by the friendships I have developed through PTR, and my business has also benefited. Please ask me if you have any questions about PTR. I am happy to help, and hopefully we can build each others business as well.

JAB Jewelry & Peters Township Referrals Social Chairman

Being the "old timer" of the group, I have benefited from this group tremendously over the last 15 years. PTR helped me create new relationships throughout the business community when I first became a banker at Brentwood Bank. Being a relationship banker is all about relationships and earning someone's trust.

95% of my business has come from referrals from others who trust me, which PTR has helped establish that referral business "from scratch".

Joe Verduci,

Brentwood Bank

I have made relationships with all of these people that I like, trust and know that they care as much about me as I do them and I would not hesitate to recommend or use their services personally and refer to all that I know. I have received great leads from our PTR members.

I chose PTR vs the larger more stringent groups because I wanted to have a personal relationship with the people I refer. For me working by referral and building relationships is all about personal one on one opportunities. PTR provides that type of network and I highly recommend it!
